Broderick to retire as Executive Director of Arc of NEPA

Don Broderick joined the Arc of Northeastern Pennsylvania in 1970 and was named its executive director in 1978. He will retire from the organization March 30.

As a child growing up in Maryland, Donald Broderick knew his cousin was different. Severely disabled, the girl lived with her parents until she was 16, when Broderick's uncle and aunt could no longer handle her and placed her in an institution. She died six months later. "It was kind of a family tragedy at that point, but it was one of those things I could never figure out when I was a kid: Why were there people who were different like that?" Broderick recalled last week. "I thought, I have to learn more about this. This is an interesting part of life I don't know anything about, and it just kind of tumbled."

His quest for an answer would lead Broderick to the University of Scranton and then take him to the organization now known as the Arc of Northeastern Pennsylvania, where the Baltimore native would dedicate himself to helping people with intellectual disabilities and autism.

On March 30, Broderick, 67, will retire as executive director of the Arc, capping a 47-year career with the organization, including the last 40 years as its top administrator.

During his tenure, the Arc has grown from a small agency based at Allied Services that served only Lackawanna County into a regional organization that now reaches into Monroe, Pike, Susquehanna, Wayne and Carbon counties.

It moved from Allied into its flagship facility on Meadow Avenue in 1984. Its annual budget, which was around $100,000 when Broderick came on board, is now pushing $8 million.

One of the major factors in the organization's growth has been the expansion of its residential programs, and Broderick said it is among the accomplishments he is most proud of during his tenure.

When he joined the Arc, about 13,000 Pennsylvanians with intellectual disabilities were housed in state institutions, often in horrendous conditions; the number is now around 800. "As far as significance goes, bringing people home from state institutions and (getting them) living in communities is probably one of the most significant things that's happened since I've been here and we were involved in all of that," he said. At times, that meant fighting zoning battles over group homes, he said. However, the not-in-my-back-yard attitudes that were prevalent in the mid-1980s are far less so today. "Especially around here people have been very accepting and realize disability can happen to anybody," Broderick said. "It's not stuck to an economic level. We serve people who are from very wealthy families and we serve people from very poor families. ... That's been our job — to have people assimilated into society."

Broderick got his start at the Arc in 1970, working at the Robinson Park Day Camp program during the summer while pursuing his bachelor's degree in psychology at the University of Scranton, where he also earned a master's degree in rehabilitation counseling. He landed

President's Message

On behalf of the Board, I would like to offer some thoughts on the announced retirement of Don Broderick. Citing his more than four decade commitment to this organization should be plenty of cause for celebration. Perhaps the amazing growth of The Arc under Don's steady hand might be an even more laudable accomplishment. But I think what stands out above all else is the way, through all these years and all of his success, Don Broderick has remained grounded in a personal commitment to the welfare of the individuals and families that have turned to The Arc for assistance. What is more, Don has imbedded that sense of caring and compassion into the culture of this extraordinary organization. That is a legacy which truly needs to be noted and certainly worth celebrating.

More will be said on this subject and the bright road ahead with Maryclaire Kretch at the helm. But for now, on behalf of the Board of Directors, the families served by The Arc and this community, I say,... Thank You Don!

Exec's Corner

The 2017-18 state budget is final. The Governor signed the revenue bill that reflects on the attached the increases on the line items tracked. The bill closed the budget gap with:

- o No new taxes
- o Expanded gambling expected to generate $200 million
- o Borrowing $1.5 billion against the tobacco settlement fund

o Allows for a one-time $500 million fund transfer

Thanks to all of you and all of our disability partners' extensive advocacy work, the Commonwealth has the best budget for people with intellectual disability and autism in 10 years. Let's celebrate today, and continue our advocacy work with the Governor on his 2018-19 budget proposal due in Feb. Great job one and all!

I recently attended the PAR Solutions Conference in Harrisburg (PA Advocacy & Resources for Autism & Intellectual Disabilities). Some very interesting topics and issues were discussed that I would like to share with you. Nancy Thaler, Deputy Secretary of ODP, during her presentations, made some compelling remarks. Nancy's career in this field began in 1971; mine in 1972 so we have seen a lot of change in those 45 plus years.

Someone recently asked her if things are really different today than they were back then. She was shocked that someone would even ask the questions.

In 1950, the year I was born, the average life expectancy of a person with Down syndrome was 12: in 1983 - 25 and today 2017 - 60+. The reasons: NICU's, better medical care, living at home with family, better education and the list goes on. In 1972, 13,500 people with Intellectual Disabilities were living in state institutions; today it is around 800... and we are spending a lot of money to keep those 800 people thus, nearly $400,000 per year/per person. Shocking, isn't it? What we could do with those dollars in the community!

In PA, we are heavily invested in Medicaid to serve people with ID and Autism, the 12th highest state in dollars per person spent, and yet we still have 10,000 people on the waiting list. Medicaid is the lifeblood of people with ID and Autism. Federal cuts to Medicaid would be devastating to the people we serve.

Somehow, we have to make sense out of all of this. These are very complex issues and need us to think beyond the box. With all of that said, 85% of people with significant disabilities are unemployed and 66% of people with ID are overweight or obese. This all gives you an idea of how far we have come, but how much more we have to do.

Six recommendations that came out of a recent "Every Day Lives" conference were to: Assure communication, Increase employment, Increase community participation, Expand options to community living, Promote health and wellness and Support families throughout the lifespan.

Great ideas all, but Leadership & Action Dependent. Just like the title of PAR's Solution Conference, let's all "THINK BIG"!

As always,
Very Respectfully Yours,
Donald W. Broderick

The Family Fall Festival at Waldorf Park

Submitted by Mari Pizur

On Sunday September 17th we held our 15th Annual "Family Fun Festival" at Waldorf Park. The weather was absolutely gorgeous, couldn't ask for a better day. Again we were blessed with a beautiful day!

Fifteen years ago we had our first Festival at the Waldorf. It was a Chicken Barbeque and "Take Five" was our entertainment! The event was not financially successful that year but we knew it just had to be tweaked to become a great community event. Jeff Brazil, past Waldorf president and current Waldorf President Paul Brady, board members and staff has been supportive to us from day 1. They helped us thru the transition and create what it is today! They are a very dedicated group of people who make our day a great success and we cannot thank them enough!

"East Coast Trio" and the "Wanabees" have been so good to us for over ten years. The two bands entertain us throughout the day but at the end of the night all the band members join each other on stage and rock the house. The dance floor was filled with people young and old laughing and dancing the night away! Nothing is better than seeing everyone coming together for a common cause – how to enjoy life together! Each of the band members has expressed the joy they receive playing every year and entertaining us! They each said "They will play for us up to their last breathe"! Now that is dedication! The beauty is everyone in the bands has donated their precious talents and time each year!

It was such a great day we had sing-a-longs, guitar playing, face painting, bake sale, basket raffles and an amazing Kiddie Korner that was run by the University of Scranton OT students, all 45 volunteers! This was a perfect setting for all to share a meal, dance and socialize together! We had a great time, with old friends and meeting new friends while enjoying the beautiful outdoors and scenery of Scranton. Smiles were priceless and you could feel the excitement in the air! Good food, good music, good weather and good people are the perfect recipe for a wonderful day!

We would like to say Thank You, Thank You and Thank You to all the volunteers, bakers, the donators and to everyone who attended. We really appreciate all that you do! You helped make a difference for the people we serve. Once again special Thanks to our Bands, the Waldorf Staff and the U of S students for all the years of support! Each of you made our day special!

I look forward to the many more Festivals in years to come! Hope to see you September 16, 2018!

Meet the Advocate

My Name is Roseann Polishan and I am the new advocate here at The Arc of NEPA. I am very excited to come on board and be a part of this wonderful organization! Advocacy for those with Autism and Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities has been my passion for some time now. It all began with my own son Hunter Polishan when he was diagnosed with autism at 2 years old and later with intellectual disability. I realized quickly that I needed to be patient and positive, yet proactive and persistent to help him navigate through the world and reach his potential.

Over the years I have been increasing my knowledge in the field of advocacy in particular with education and legislative affairs. I have taken a number of trainings, classes and workshops on the IEP process, evaluations/reevaluations, assistive technology, inclusive practices and transition planning. I also have led with the Scranton School District on development of a parent group and the Right to Education Task Force Local 19 as the parent chairperson.

I look forward to learning even more from the staff and families at The Arc of NEPA. I hope to meet many new faces and help to continue The Arc of NEPA's mission.

VISION

It has been several weeks since the Search Committee has offered and I accepted the position as our Executive Director, effective April 1, 2018. I am deeply honored and humbled to have this opportunity. Be assured that I dedicate myself to the mission of The Arc.

I have spent the last few weeks talking with you, gathering your thoughts, and collecting mine. It is time, I believe, to share with you thoughts on our vision and our culture here at The Arc.

Our Vision is clear..." Every individual with intellectual and developmental disabilities will be heard, respected and provided the dignity of all human and civil rights." This vision is embraced with passion for what is right and is fueled by the energy and dedication of staff, the board of directors, and affiliated groups who will not/cannot settle for less than an abundant life for our loved ones, and friends with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

The sum of our values and beliefs, our philosophy, and attitudes defines our culture, who we are. The Arc is recognized for being a cut above because we provide advocacy, services and supports that demonstrate our expectation that all human and civil rights be afforded children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. We go beyond simply afforded. We pursue our mission with compassion for quality.

Our culture here at The Arc adheres to principals steeped in our values:

- We have unwavering faith in our vision and our mission

- We approach leadership with modesty, humility and a committed drive for excellence.
- We accept no less than an environment of trust, respect and dignity.
- We believe in a culture of discipline because when each one of us has personal discipline, we don't need to rely on a hierarchy.
- We cultivate a work place where it is safe to acknowledge our challenges and discuss best solutions.

Our greatest asset is our people, people like you, who believe in our vision and that working toward a culture of excellence is not only possible but necessary in pursuit of our mission.

Respectfully Yours,
Maryclaire Kretsch

Day of Caring

We love our volunteers!!!

On Thursday, September 7th, The Arc proudly participated in the United Way of Lackawanna and Wayne Counties "Day of Caring", during which hundreds of individuals from various companies and businesses in our community come together to work side by side with United Way partner agency staff to accomplish all sorts of tasks and to learn more about how their dollars benefit the agencies funded by the United Way. This year's United Way Day of Caring 2017 projects at The Arc included landscaping, weeding, planting, driveway sealing, painting and many other indoor/outdoor tasks. The volunteers worked at Weston Park, as well as, the Adult Day Services Program area and several Community Residential homes. The Arc of NEPA has been a participant in "Day of Caring" since its inception, and we are proud of the many friendships made over the years through this special day.

Walk For Me Winners!!!

Through a grant from The Moses Taylor Foundation, The Arc is promoting healthy lifestyle through walking.

"Walking for Me" was a six week program that we hope will get you started on a very healthy habit... Every volunteer participant received a free pedometer from The Arc. Employees who walked most often, or who had at least 10,000 steps recorded on their pedometer for the most days, and employees who expressed positive benefits of this program were eligible to win an iwatch or fit bit!! Congratulations to Amy Craig who had the most steps recorded (489,254 total steps or 11,378 daily) and to Allison Wruble as the random winner. Too each of the walkers, You All ROCK!!! We applaud you. Thank you Moses

Taylor Foundation for giving The Arc-NEPA the opportunity to extend this wonderful program to all of the employees.

Bosco's Community Day

Pauline looks lovely at The Arc-NEPA table at Bosco's Scranton. Bosco's Friends Helping Friends program was held on Tuesday, October 17, 2017. This fund raiser benefits the Aktion Club which has helped and supported many Arc families, as well as, community groups. The Aktion Club's mission is to serve others and is proud to be sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Scranton.

PPODS Buddy Walk

On Sunday September 24th North PPODS hosted our 8th Annual Buddy Walk and Family Fun Day at Camp Speers YMCA in Dingmans Ferry. Participants enjoyed pony rides, crafts, games, bounce houses, archery, food, character appearances and more. Over 500 individuals joined in to celebrate and spread Down Syndrome Awareness with us.

Leave a Legacy – Estate Giving Program

Remembering...

The Arc's founding parents, concerned community members and friends have passed on a legacy of commitment to a new generation. Today, we seek to sustain this legacy.

Building...

Looking toward tomorrow may often be intimidating, but at The Arc we continue the mission and grow with the needs of the children and adults we serve.

Leaving a Legacy...

By giving a gift to The Arc, you are ensuring a bright future for the people served in our programs. Estate giving allows for a variety of ways for individuals to choose the support most appropriate for planning their legacy: Outright cash gifts, designated life insurance policy, bequests, real estate.

We appreciate your kindness you show on an annual basis. As we move forward today and throughout the year, we also need to be remembered as we go into the future. With your generosity, we can continue offering the services to the individuals who need them. If you would like to explore a method of giving that is right for you, please feel free to contact us and we will be happy to meet with you. For specific financial or legal advice, please consult with an attorney or financial planner.

Broderick to retire...

In 1978, he was named executive director, succeeding Mary Campbell, who founded the local chapter of what was then the Pennsylvania Association for Retarded Children in 1955.

Broderick said he and his wife, Rosemary, plan to do some traveling after he retires but will remain in the area. Both are active in volunteer organizations in the community "and we are just kind of going to do what we have been doing," he said.

People jokingly ask Broderick how he managed to do the same job day after day for 40 years, but he said he never felt like that. Over time, so many things in the field changed that there was always something different, he said. "This is one of those jobs where you know when you get into it, it's something greater than you are and that's a good thing," Broderick said. "It's

1st Annual Sumner Elementary School "Buddy Walk"

Great news for all of you. Last Friday a Buddy Walk was held in West Scranton at the Sumner Elementary Center. Simone Grasso and her family reached out to the administration and organized a tee shirt sale and Buddy Walk at school. Tee shirts were designed and sold to anyone interested for $10.00. The proceeds from the sale were split 50/ 50. Five dollars per shirt was collected and donated to PODS to help support our mission. A check for $612.00 dollars was presented to me the day of the walk.

The Principal Mr. DeLuca called me early in the morning and invited me and my family to the walk. I was able to rearrange my day off from work and attend this wonderful event. It is with great pleasure and enthusiasm that I congratulate the Grasso's on a job well done and a mission success statement for our organization is well deserving. Please thank Simone and her family when you see them and if possible think about some way that you may be able to do something similar at your schools for next year.

Thanks again for your support and unwavering efforts to make our group the success that it is. The members we have are inspiring and it is a pleasure being apart of this great group. Keep up the great work and stay focused and as always keep in touch.

Bert Morgan,
PODS President

Scranton District Dental Society Supports The Arc

During The Arc's "Family Fun Fall Festival" at Waldorf Park September 17th, Dr. Kurt Wadsworth, President of the Scranton District Dental Society (SDDS), presented The Arc's Executive Director Don Broderick with a check for $5,000.

"The Scranton District Dental Society is proud to be associated with and support The Arc. For 15 years, The Arc has partnered with us to stuff thousands of "goodie bags" filled with dental educational material, tooth brushes, tooth paste, and coupons for National Children's Dental Health Month in February. The consumers of The Arc do such a fantastic job that we ask them to help year after year. Last year, they filled 8,000 bags!" states Wadsworth.

According to SDDS President-Elect Dr. Charles Scrimalli, "It is so good to come out to support such a worthwhile organization. Our member dentists love to serve our local community." Dr. Scrimalli also has a band, East Coast Trio, that has performed for The Arc's Family Fun Fall Festival for the past nine years.

The SDDS is a voluntary organization comprising approximately 150 local member dentists. It is a constituency of the American Dental Association (ADA), the largest and oldest national dental society in the world, and the Pennsylvania Dental Association (PDA). The SDDS oversees activities like Children's Dental Health Month, public education, school visitations, and continuing education for dentists.

The mission of the SDDS is to provide dentists with a forum to discuss pertinent issues that relate to the practice and regulation of dentistry as it pertains to the health and general well being of the communities they serve.

For more information on NCDHM or the SDDS, please visit www.scrantondental.org.

The Arc consumers give the thumbs up as SDDS President Dr. Kurt Wadsworth presents the $5000 check to ARC Executive Director Don Broderick.

Annual Golf Tourney - The SDDS annual golf tournament held in June at the Scranton Country Club was a huge success. As a result of the sponsorships, a large donation was made to The Arc! Thank you to all our sponsors and golfers.

The PODS of NEPA Buddy Walk 2017

The PODS of NEPA Buddy Walk 2017 was held on Sunday, October 1st at Nay Aug Park (Schimelfenig Pavilion). The afternoon was filled with live entertainment, family activities and the awareness walk!

The PODS of NEPA have sponsored this walk for 16 years and nationally, the Buddy Walk is in its 23rd year. Locally, Miss Sara Wolff started the walk as part of her Senior project at North Pocono High School. The Buddy Walk is part of the activities in celebration of October as Down Syndrome Awareness Month.

Parents of Down Syndrome of Northeastern Pennsylvania (PODS) is a nonprofit organization providing support and programs for families of Down Syndrome. The group began in January of 1996 at the home of Phil and Cindy Rossi, where eight families met with one thing in common- the concern for their children. Today the Parents of Down Syndrome of NEPA has grown to over 40 members. "We have a growing membership of children and adults with DS, and their families. Our goal in PODS is to provide individuals with DS opportunities that they may not otherwise have available. We also want to assist parents and families with the wisdom and guidance that can come from experience. If we can offer our sons, daughters, and friends with Down Syndrome, and their families, support that comes through collaboration, we have achieved our mission," said Bert Morgan, President of PODS.

PODS meet monthly for a general support meeting at The Arc-NEPA located on 115 Meadow Avenue in Scranton. We have a lot to offer folks who would like to be a part of wonderful group or just to see what we are all about. If you have any questions, please contact Bert Morgan, PODS President by email: camor77@comcast.net or Michele Reese by phone: 570-862-1679
