

Celebrating “World Down Syndrome Day” 3.21* Let’s celebrate with a “Rock Your Socks off” Sock Hop”!

Poodle Skirts, Bobby Socks and Rolled up Jeans!

Step back in time to 1955 with great entertainers such as Elvis Presley, Buddy Holly, Frank Sinatra, The Fontaine Sisters, Johnny Cash, Bill Haley and The Comets!

Entertainment

“Party Time”

They are professional entertainers that will be playing favorite songs from the fifties!
We are going to “Rock Around the Clock” as we dance to “Tutti Frutti”!

Where: King’s College - (William Scandlon Physical Education Center - Main Gym)

When: Wednesday ~ March 27, 2024

Time: 6:00pm

Cost: 10.00

Price includes entertainment, root beer floats, chips, pretzels and of course penny candy!
(Everyone must pay including parents/guardians and caregivers)

Feel free to wear your favorite poodle skirts, crazy or bobby socks, rolled up jeans, cat eye glasses or a scarf!

All are welcome - fun for all ages!
Happy Days are here again, time to celebrate!

World Down Syndrome Day (also known as WDSO) is a global awareness initiative that has been backed by the United Nations since 2012

Reservations are required.
Please call Mari at 570/207-0825.